GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS.

Candidates are expected to take their seats in the Examination hall at least five minutes before the time fixed for giving out the question papers. No candidate will be allowed to quit the examination hall on any day until the expiration of half an hour from the time fixed for the commencement of the examination and candidates arriving after the expiration of that half an hour will not be admitted.

No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination hall during the hours of examination after once quitting it, or to leave the hall without finally handing over his answer papers.

Strict silence should be maintained in the examination hall.

No candidate will on any account be allowed to take into the examination hall slates, books or portion of a book, rules sheets, manuscripts or papers of any kind. Any candidates detected in violation of this rule or detected in speaking to or in any way communicating with or copying from each other and in communicating with any other person outside the examination hall or having recourse to any unfair practices will be sent out of the hall forthwith and his conduct reported to the Director for disciplinary action.

Candidates are forbidden from noting down the answer to any question on the question paper itself, they will not be allowed to take any papers except their question papers out of the examination hall.

Candidates are forbidden from tearing up paper, or throwing ink or papers on the floor. All 'spoilt' copies etc. should be left on the writing desk in the examination hall.

Candidates may have to write their answers on both sides of the paper supplied to them and they will receive the necessary instruction on this point in the examination hall from the Chief Superintendent of the examination.

No candidate will be allowed to exceed the time assigned for each paper.

As soon as candidates have finished their answers and wish to give up their answer papers, or at the end of the period prescribed for each particular part of the examination, each should rise from his seat and remain standing until one of the Superintendents has gone up to him and has received his answer paper from him. Any candidate wishing to ask any question to the Superintendent will pursue the same course but will on no account leave his seat.

The answer papers of the Theory Examinations should be stitched or pinned together at the upper left-hand corner, and the whole folded into two, length-wise (not cross-wise into four). The Register number and the place of examination should be written clearly by the candidates on the top right-hand side of the first page of the answer paper, as well as on the top of the paper after it is folded.

N. B. (1) Candidates are strictly forbidden from writing their names on the answer papers.

(2) Candidates should distinctly understand that failure to furnish even any one of these particulars may involve the rejection of valuing their answer papers—particularly any answer paper sent up without candidate's register number and the name of centre will not be valued.

Any candidate who does not behave properly towards the Chief and Assistant Superintendents of the examination, is suspected of having had recourse to malpractice of any kind in connection with the examination or whose answer papers contain objectionable matter, is liable to have his examinations invalidated and also to be debarred from appearing again for any of the examinations under the control of the Director of Public Instruction for such term of years as the Director may think fit; or, if the Director is not satisfied for any reasons whatsoever as to the trustworthiness of his results, he may be required to undergo a re-examination at some future date to be fixed by the Director in any one or more of the subjects of the examination for which he appeared, his success or failure being determined on the results of such re-examination. Candidates are forbidden form communicating with the examiners, should they do so their answer papers will not be valued and further their conduct will be reported to the Director for any action that he may deem fit and the Director will treat it as a serious malpractice.

No information can be furnished in regard to the results of a candidate in any subject or in regard to the marks obtained by him or in regard to the particular section or sub-division in which he may have failed. The names of successful candidates in each subject arranged in two classes, first and second, will be published in the Kerala Gazette in due course. The pass list for each grade of a subject as published in the Gazette is complete and final. Applications from or on behalf of unsuccessful candidates asking for information as to the cause of failure or for a revaluation of the answer papers will not be attended to.

A record of the general conduct of the Examination should be maintained by the Chief Superintendent and a copy thereof forwarded to this office.
